DEFINING TRADE FINANCE

AAR	Against all risks.
Acceleration	Early demand for repayment of a Facility . A creditor will reserve to itself the right to declare a Facility due and payable before its scheduled maturity date after an Event of Default has occurred. The creditor may also have the right to declare that a Facility is repayable on demand, although not actually make demand for repayment.
Acceleration Clause	The clause permitting a creditor to demand early repayment of a Facility after an Event of Default has occurred.
Acceptance	Signification by the Drawee of a Bill of Exchange of his assent to the order of the Drawer . It must be in writing on the Bill of Exchange and signed by the Drawee .
Acceptance Letter of Credit	A Letter of Credit which provides that it will be honoured by Acceptance by the bank with which the Letter of Credit is available of a Bill of Exchange drawn by the Beneficiary .
Acceptor	A Drawee of a Bill of Exchange which has signified his assent to the order of the Drawer in due form.
	See also Acceptance.
Accession Letter	A letter which is signed by the original parties to a contract together with a person who also wishes to become party to that contract. A form of accession letter is often scheduled to a Facility Agreement or Security Document as a simple mechanism to allow additional parties to accede.
Accomplished Bill of Lading	See Spent Bill of Lading.
Accrue	To accumulate. Accrued interest is that interest which is due. This does not necessarily mean it is payable yet.
Acknowledgement of Assignment	An acknowledgement by the debtor of an Assignor evidencing receipt of a Notice of Assignment .
Additional Obligor	A person that accedes to a Facility Agreement or a Security Document during the life of a Facility.

Administration	An insolvency procedure involving the appointment of an administrator. An administrator takes control of the company on behalf of all the creditors of the company generally to manage its affairs, business and property with a view to achieving one of three statutory objectives:  (a) rescuing the company as a going concern;  (b) achieving a better result for the creditors as a whole than if the company was wound up; or  (c) realising property to make a distribution to Secured Creditors .  The appointment of an administrator automatically imposes a Moratorium on any enforcement or other legal action by a creditor of the company.
Administration	A search typically undertaken by a creditor's lawyers on the Search	date that the Facility Agreement is entered into and/or the date of Financial Close to check that the debtor is not in Administration . Typically inconclusive because it is not possible to search every court where a notice to appoint administrators could be filed and because England and Wales does not currently have a central registry recording administrations.
Advance	See Drawdown .
Advance Payment	See Prepayment Finance.
Advance Payment Guarantee	A form of Demand Guarantee issued to secure a refund to a buyer under a contract of sale if the purchase price (whether in all or part) has been paid in advance.
Advance Ratio	See Loan to Value Ratio.

Agency Fee	An annual fee payable by the debtor to the Agent in a Syndicated Facility structure.

Agent	<ul> <li>(a) A general term for a person appointed to act on behalf of a Principal entity or person. Air Waybill	Document of carriage in respect of the carriage of goods by air.
Allonge	A piece of paper attached to a Bill of Exchange when there is no room on the Bill of Exchange for further Indorsements . Encountered principally in civil law countries, in particular, those which have adopted the Geneva Uniform Law on Bills of Exchange and Promissory Notes.
AML	Anti-money laundering.
Amortisation	Repayment of the capital element of a debt over time, often by an equal amount each year.

Arrangement Fee	A one off fee payable by the debtor to the Arranger for arranging the Facilit(y)(ies) .
Arranger	The banking entity which agrees and negotiates a Syndicated Facility .

Assignment	Unlike a Security Assignment , an assignment is not subject to the Equity of Redemption . An assignment may be either an Equitable Assignment or a Legal Assignment.
	Unlike the transferee of a Beneficiary of a Transferable Letter of Credit, an Assignee of a Letter of Credit has transferred to it the right to the proceeds of a Letter of Credit but not the right to perform (i.e. present documents) under the Letter of Credit .
Assignee	The person to whom an Assignment or a Security
	Assignment is granted.
Assignment by way of	See Security Assignment.

Assignor	Assignment.

	Provides the creditor with constructive possession of the goods or documentary intangibles and together with an intent to pledge creates and perfects the Pledge .
Autonomy of the	A fundamental principle of a Letter of Credit (the other Letter of Credit	being Strict Compliance ) according to which the Letter of Credit is separate from and independent to the underlying transaction giving rise to it. Absent fraud of the Beneficiary or illegality in paying under the Letter of Credit , the bank cannot otherwise refuse to make payment under the Letter of Credit against presentation of documents complying with the terms of the Letter of Credit . This gives rise to the closely connected principle that a Letter of Credit is a transaction in documents and documents alone.
Availability Period	The period during which a Facility can be utilised.
Aval	Essentially a Guarantee in respect of a Bill of Exchange .
	Recognised by many legal systems, particularly those of states which have adopted the Geneva Uniform Law on Bills of Exchange and Promissory Notes. It can be given either on the Bill of Exchange itself or on an Allonge .
AWB	See Air Waybill.

Back to Back Letter of Credit	A Letter of Credit under which the documents presented may be presented (substituting at least the invoice) under another Letter of Credit (e.g. a seller, as Beneficiary under a Letter of Credit, requests the Advising Bank under that Letter of Credit to open another Letter of Credit in favour of the supplier of that Beneficiary on the security of the first Letter of Credit).  See also Counter Letter of Credit.
BAFT-IFSA	Bankers' Association for Finance and Trade/International Financial Services Association.

Its conclusions do not themselves have legal force.
Basel II	The regulatory capital requirements published in June 2004 by the Basel Committee intended to replace those under the original 1998 Basel Capital Accord and implemented in the EU from 1 January 2007 by the European Capital Requirements Directive. The global financial crisis meant that banking supervisors began a fundamental reappraisal of Basel II before it had even been consistently applied in practice. The reappraisal led to Basel III .

The latest version of the Basel Accord regulations issued by the Basel Committee following the global financial crisis and designed to protect the banking industry from future financial crises by requiring banks to maintain adequate leverage ratios and capital to cover potential losses. Basel III will result in all banks facing higher capital requirements and will be implemented in the EU by CRD IV.  Basis Point  A subdivision of one per cent. See also Inventory Finance , In Tank Financing , Stock Finance and Warehouse Finance .
Break Costs	Where money is borrowed for a particular period and is repaid early, break costs may arise. These are theoretically linked to the loss or cost to the creditor of having to redeploy its underlying borrowings for the full period. It is common to see (e.g. in LMA documentation) an obligation on a debtor which wishes to prepay to pay the difference between the amount which would have been payable had the Prepayment not occurred, and the return available from depositing the Prepayment with a bank in the interbank market. Also called Broken Funding Costs .

This is determined by reference to the amount of business which it does and the commercial risks associated with that business. This capital is required to give depositors confidence in banking institutions and to ensure that adequate capital is available to be written off against losses. An increase in capital adequacy requirements will give rise to increased costs which the creditor will often seek to pass on to its debtors.
Capital Requirements Directive IV	European Union directive (and related regulation) setting out the capital requirements for credit institutions and investment firms to ensure consistent application within the European Union of Basel III .
Capitalisation of Interest	Instead of paying interest, the debtor is permitted to add it to the loan, i.e. to borrow to pay interest.

Also known as Locked Box . While a cash sweep is in operation, any surplus income not required for debt service is retained by the creditor and used to reduce the Facility outstanding rather than released to the debtor. Where this right is only exercisable if the creditor considers that a financial Covenant is not being complied with it is known as a soft Locked Box .
